Spells - Curses

A curse will find the nearest person, and apply the effect to them. This includes sorcerer that cast it. To avoid this cast an Anti-Curse. This will make the nearest person permanently immune to any curse, meaning curses will ignore them and simply afflict the next nearest person. A bucket of milk will still cure most curses.
Anti-Curse

Grants immunity to all curses. If this is cast on someone already immune it skips to the next nearest.

Curse Of Blindness

Inflicts a minute of blindness.

Curse Of Hunger

Inflicts a minute of extreme hunger.

Curse Of Weight

Inflicts a minute of powerful slowness.

Bugs, Issues, And Warnings

Accidently using more than one of a block in a recipe will get rid of that whole stack of it.

The items in this mod are retextured "Carrot On A Stick". Therefore using that object may give it broken textures. As such I disabled the crafting recipe for it, though any already around will still exist. Additionally, people without the textures installed will see these modded items as a carrot on a stick.

There is sometimes and issue where one of the three ingredients remains despite the spell being cast. I have yet to work out what causes it. It seems to be rare.
